

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE August 23, 2006
CONTACT: Jared Cordes (202) 225-5235

"Revamping Our Farm Bill"

By Congressman Allen Boyd (D-FL)

Congressman Boyd and his wife, Cissy, on their farm in Monticello, Florida.

At the start of the new year, the rewrite of the farm bill will be a top priority for Congress and will set our

As a fifth generation farmer and one of the handful of active farmers in Congress, I know firsthand the ch

Unfortunately, our country's economic environment is not the same as it was in 2001 when the 2002 Far

As a result of our current budget situation, many important farm programs could be at stake as we face t

Despite these budget challenges, the expiration of the 2002 Farm Bill next year presents huge promise a

Since the enactment of the 2002 Farm Bill, Florida's farmers, as well as the entire North Florida commu

